Tom is from Manchester. He is visiting his cousin, Jack, in London in summer.
Tom: Hi, Jack! How are you? I'm excited to visit London!
Jack: I'm great! Thanks. Have you got a ticket already?
Tom: Yes, I have. Mum helped me buy my train ticket yesterday. I will arrive in London at 11:00 am.
Jack: Cool! Mum and I are picking you up tomorrow at the platform. Then, we will take the bus together. We will have lunch at our favourite restaurant.
Tom: Sounds great! Are we going somewhere next?
Jack: Mum is taking us on an open-top bus tour. It will take us on a 90-minute sightseeing tour in London.
Tom: I also want to see the River Thames.
Jack: We are taking a river cruise tomorrow afternoon! We can have lunch on the boat, too. But, before that, we are visiting Windsor Castle. You have to witness the changing of the guards at 11:00 am! The next day, Mum is taking us for a Harry Potter tour!
Tom: That's a dream come true! I'm a big fan of Harry Potter!
Jack: That's what I told mum! On the third day, we are going to visit museums and cafes!
Tom: That's a brilliant idea! I can't wait for tomorrow.
